- h) Electing members of the Nominating Committees
- i) Removing Officers who do not meet the standards of their offices
- j) Dissolving the Society

6.1.2 Between meetings of the Assembly of Delegates, the Executive Committee will assume those responsibilities of the Assembly of Delegates that it cannot accomplish through e-mail voting and that require action before the next Assembly of Delegates meeting.

6.2 Composition of the Assembly of Delegates

6.2.1 All members of the Executive Committee as described by these Statutes.

6.2.2 One representative from each National Society in each country.

6.2.3 Fifteen Representatives elected by the Assembly of Individual Members

6.2.4 Executive Director (ex-officio)

6.3 Procedures

6.3.1 The Assembly of Delegates will meet at least every year with at least one meeting coincidental with the International Congress.

6.3.2 The Executive Director of the Society shall send notices of the meetings to members at least 90 days in advance. Any proposed amendments to the Statutes will accompany these notices. Reports of the officers, committees and task forces along with the proposed agenda shall be sent to each member at least 21 days prior to the date of the meetings.

6.3.3 The Assembly of Delegates will be presided over by the President of the Society.

6.3.4 In case of absence, the President-Elect shall take the chair.

6.3.5 The agenda of the Assembly of Delegates shall be set by the President and must include:

6.4 Decision-making

6.4.1 Decisions of the Assembly of Delegates shall be considered valid only if there is a quorum of the President or his/her designee and at least 10 percent of the remaining Assembly members.

6.4.2 Decisions shall be taken by a simple majority vote (50% + 1) of the members present. In case of deadlock, the President shall have the casting vote.

6.4.3 Voting shall normally take place by a show of hands or electronic voting unless requested otherwise (by at least 30% present) in which case they will take place by ballot.

6.4.4 All Members of the Assembly of Delegates may vote except for those with ex-officio status.

6.5 Extraordinary session

6.5.1 An extraordinary session of the Assembly of Delegates can be convened whenever necessary by decision of the President's Cabinet or at the request of one-fifth (1/5) of the members of the Assembly of Delegates.

6.6 Amendment of the Statutes and dissolution

6.6.1 Notice to amend these Statutes may be submitted by any Active Individual Member or Active National Society Member to the Secretary and the Chair of the Statutes Committee and Executive Director of the Society.

6.6.2 The President's Cabinet after studying the proposal shall decide within 2 months whether or not it supports the proposed changes. It shall inform the submitter accordingly.

6.6.3 If the President's Cabinet supports the proposal, it shall be presented to the Assembly of Delegates either through an e-mail ballot or at its next scheduled meeting. Members of the Assembly of Delegates will be given 90 days to respond to an e-mail ballot. If a proposed change is placed on the agenda of a regular Assembly of Delegates meeting, it must be distributed 90 days before the meeting.

6.6.4 For a proposal to be approved by e-mail ballot, it must be approved by a majority of those voting. For a vote to be valid, at least 40% of the Assembly of Delegates must vote. A proposal presented at a meeting of the Assembly of Delegates shall require a second and simple majority for passage.

6.6.5 The Assembly of Delegates must notify the total membership of the approved changes not later than 3 months after their approval.

6.6.6 If the President's Cabinet does not support the proposal, the Active Member can request the Executive Director to include the submitted proposal on the Agenda of the next scheduled meeting of the Assembly of Delegates provided that the motion is seconded. The approval of such a motion would require a 2/3 majority. If this motion is passed, the Assembly of Delegates must notify the total membership of the approved changes not later than 3 months after their approval.

6.6.7 In case of dissolution, if the quorum as per article 6.4.1 is not reached, the President has the right to adjourn the Assembly of Delegates and to reconvene an extraordinary meeting of the Assembly of Delegates on the same day. In such a case, the extraordinary Assembly of Delegates must include all members of the President's Cabinet and 5% of the remaining Assembly of Delegates members. Under such circumstances, 75% of the Assembly of Delegates attending the meeting must approve the dissolution.
